

Usage

Use this template carefully, only when there is a well-established consensus at the relevant policy or guideline page to link to an essay in question. The noun supplement does not mean "an interpretation" nor "something added". It means precisely "something added, especially to make up for a deficiency", in this case a deficiency in a official Foresight Wiki's policy or guideline. If consensus changes and the essay is no longer referenced in a policy or guideline, change the tag to a standard .

This template can handle between one and three page parameters. It has an optional "shortcut" parameter that can be used to add a Shortcut: box to the right side of the template.

-

becomes:

While this essay is not a policy or guideline itself, it is intended to supplement page1. Please update the page as needed, or discuss it on the talk page.

-

becomes:

While this essay is not a policy or guideline itself, it is intended to supplement page1 and page2. Please update the page as needed, or discuss it on the talk page.

-

becomes:

While this essay is not a policy or guideline itself, it is intended to supplement page1, page2 and page3. Please update the page as needed, or discuss it on the talk page.